2023/24

National Strategic Group for Indirect Victims of Indecent Images of Children Investigations

About this document

This document provides a list of services which offer support to the family members and friends of those who have been arrested for online sexual offending. This list is composed of those services currently available at the time of publication (October 2023) – the list will be extended as new services develop.

Some family members may wish to know what services are available for the person who has offended online. As such, a further list of services for those who have offended online is also included.

Please note that the inclusion of services in the lists does not represent endorsement, or otherwise, on the part of the National Strategic Group for Indirect Victims of Indecent Images of Children Investigations.

The Lucy Faithfull Foundation and Stop It Now UK and Ireland

The Lucy Faithfull Foundation's mission is to prevent child sexual abuse.

We support individuals and families who have been affected by sexual abuse and we work closely with frontline workers and professionals to ensure children are as safe as they can be.

We run the anonymous Stop It Now UK and Ireland helpline which is a confidential place to get support about any child sexual abuse issues.

We can help you if you're worried about the behaviour of another adult or young person. And we take calls from those who are worried about themselves. We can support callers whether or not the police are involved.

Children Heard and Seen

Children Heard and Seen support children and families impacted by parental imprisonment. We take a person-centered approach, tailoring our support to the needs of each family. We support families for as long as they need us, including support upon release of the imprisoned parent. We provide support to families in their own communities where possible, and are not tied to or funded by any prison related service.

Services offered	One to one support for children (in person in Thames Valley region, virtual in other parts of England and Wales) Support for parents and carers Peer group activity groups for children Volunteer mentoring Online support and activities Summer Residential	Free
Eligibility	For children, parents and carers where a parent is in prison.
Coverage	Online support nationally. In person support in Thames Valley region.
One to one support for children	We provide targeted support for children and young people to explore and understand their emotions surrounding their family member in prison. This can be delivered in person to families in the Thames Valley region and online via Zoom to families in other parts of England and Wales. Examples of our 1:1 support include: therapeutic support through Drawing &amp; Talking; exploring creativity and emotions through our Music Project; photo-book/memory box making; letter-writing support using our own designed templates.	Free
Support for parents and carers	We support parents around all aspects of parental imprisonment, including how to tell children they have a parent in prison, issues around contact and visits and support around release as this is often the most stressful time for families. Our support is for the non-offending parent, whether or not they are still in a relationship with the parent in prison. Parents have the opportunity to meet others in a similar situation and form peer-support groups, aided by our trained staff. We currently run a weekly peer support group led by two of the carers we support.	Free
Peer support and activity groups for children	We provide peer support work and group work for children with a parent in prison. These sessions combat feelings of shame by showing children that they are not alone. By speaking with other young people, children are able to share coping strategies and manage complex emotions surrounding their parent's imprisonment. This improves the emotional wellbeing of children who attend, allowing them to maximise their own potential in other areas. Sessions can be delivered online or in person.	Free

Volunteer mentoring	To help children process emotions with a neutral person outside of the family. Through our volunteer mentorship scheme, responsible adults are matched with children based on common interests, age, and the individual needs of the child. A mentor helps to ensure that a child has the opportunity to try new things, access resources and develop life skills, whilst also acting as a positive role model. Our mentors provide support for a child over a period of six to twelve months.	Free
Online support and activities	For children	Free
Activity days	Including our annual Summer Residential.	Free
Resources	We have created our own workbook, made in consultation with young people, which covers each stage of the sentence from arrest to release. We also have letter templates, designed to make contact with the parent in prison easier. https://childrenheardandseen.co.uk/resources/
